Maximise opportunities through YPO's 999 Training Solutions DPS

The 999 Training Solutions DPS is open to all UK public sector bodies and has been designed with a wide range of training categories (or "lots") to meet the diverse and evolving needs across the sector.

With 27 lots, it covers everything from specialist blue light training, GDPR, and project management, to core training areas such as first aid, wellbeing, and safeguarding. Whether you require niche technical training or general staff development, the DPS provides access to high-quality providers with the relevant expertise.

It's open until 2029, giving organisations a flexible, long-term route to procure training that supports workforce development, legislative compliance, and service improvement - all within a fully compliant and supported framework.

As an approved supplier, you have exclusive access to public sector opportunities through the DPS. Here's how to ensure you're leveraging your position effectively:

Key benefits to you as a supplier

✓ Awarded Supplier Status

Promote your status as an approved supplier on YPO's 999 Training DPS - a mark of quality, trust, and public sector readiness.

✓ Streamlined Bidding Process

The further competition route is designed to reduce the time and effort required to complete a bid, making it more efficient for you.

✓ Continuous Opportunities

The DPS remains open until 2029, providing a stable, long-term platform for growth and collaboration.

You're an awarded supplier on the YPO 999 Training Solutions DPS - make the most of it!
